Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy, I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

A Japanese pug dog is lost. See advertisement.

A reliable woman wishes a situation. See advertisement.

The Cricket Club's adjourned annual meeting should come off next Tuesday evening.

The mail by the W.H. Dimond to-day for the Coast consisted of 35 letters and 497 papers.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Giovanni Long and Miss Laurita Kase on Tuesday next.

Walter Dillingham treated a large party of young friends to an excursion by rail to Ewa sugar mill last night.

The annual meeting of the Woodlawn Fruit Co. will be held at 12 noon to-morrow at J.S. Walker's office.

Purser Muoro, late of the S.S. Miowara, will leave on the S.S. Warrimoo on Tuesday next for the Colonies.

The trustees of the Queen's Hospital met this afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce to adopt regulations.

The Hawaiian National band will give a moonlight concert at Sans Souci this evening. It is only a ten-minute walk from the cars.

The P.G. band will play at Makee Island this evening, unless the S.S. Mariposa be in port, in which case the concert will be at the Hotel.

The Concordia band has elected the following officers: M.G. Silva, president; M.S. Freitas, vice-president; J.T. Figueira, secretary; J.V. Fernandez, treasurer.

Kaapuni, the native who was pardoned on Wednesday, is still working about the Police Station, being granted leave by Marshal Hitchcock until he secures employment.

Jos. S. Emerson, Robert W. Andrews and Albert Trask have been appointed by Minister King as a commission to adjudicate land damages at the Leper Settlement.

Theo. H. Davies will give his annual dinner to employees of his firm at Craigside, Nuanuu Valley, to-morrow afternoon. The Hawaiian National band will play from 2 to 5 o'clock.

There was an explosion on the roof of the Executive building during the fireworks exhibition Wednesday evening. A lot of fireworks accidentally caught fire and the whole thing went up in smoke. More kahuna.

The S.S. Monowai in January, 1892, was five days late, and in January, 1893, the S.S. Alameda was three days late. Both steamships were from the Coast and were detained waiting for the mails. This is probably the cause of the S.S. Mariposa's delay.

Mr. J. F. Eckardt, purveyor of the Queen's Hospital, desires to return thanks on behalf of the patients of that institution, to Mr. Thos. G. Thrum of the Uptown Bookstore, the Hawaiian News Co., and Mr. W. F. Reynolds of the Golden Rule Bazaar, for a checker board donated by each of them.

The steamer Mikahala yesterday brought news of a strike of Japanese laborers on the Koloa plantation. The trouble arose over the beating of one of the Japs by a luma. When the Mikahala left the Japs were still on the strike. K. Okkotsu, Japanese inspector, left on the steamer yesterday evening to investigate the matter.

J. J. Silva, the Portuguese who was assaulted and kicked by Domingos Ferreira, and who has been confined in the Queen's Hospital since the assault, has so far recovered as to be able to be removed to his home. He can walk a little, and Ferreira may thank his stars that he did not have to answer to a charge of manslaughter. Ferreira in his defense will try to prove that the assault was provoked.

TUNEFUL NAVAL SAILORS.

Concert at Y. M. C. A. Hall by Men of the Champion.

A short time ago the entertainment committee of the Y. M. C. A. gave a concert for the pleasure of sailors of H. B. M. S. Champion. Last night the sailors gave the "return match" in a rattling concert, of which nautical songs were a feature. There was a goodly attendance of the general public, and every number on the program was greatly enjoyed. Russell's dancing of the hornpipe incited thunderous applause. An orchestra composed of three banjos, a concertina and a fife made great hits. Following is the program, exclusive of encores:

Overture—Loss of the Vanguard.....D. Russell
Song—Policeman Barker.....W. Cain
Sailor's Hornpipe.....D. Russell
Chorus—The Song that Reached My Heart
Song—Sailing.....F. Payne
Banjo Duet.....J. G. Spicer
Song—Nazzareth.....J. G. Spicer
Song—Playmates.....W. Duncall
Song—Sweet and Low.....A. Davis
Overture.....Orchestra

Obituary.

Mrs. Maunakikila Mahoe, sister of Paul P. Kanoa, ex-Governor, etc., died at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, of heart disease, at her residence on King street. She was a little over 50 years of age, and was at one time the wife of Judge Solomon, of Koloa, who became a leper and was sent to the Leper Settlement. Mrs. Mahoe leaves besides her husband an adopted son. The funeral took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, the services and interment being at the Kawaiahao Church. There were profuse floral offerings from the deceased's many friends. The residence was thronged yesterday and to-day.

All kinds of Commercial Printing promptly executed at low rates at the Bulletin Office.

JUDICIARY NOTINGS.

Responsibility of Partners—Masonic Temple Law suit.

Judge Cooper this morning over-ruled exceptions of defendants in the case of T. K. R. Amalu vs. The Kona Coffee and Fruit Co., and A. S. Hartwell, garnishee. Pending the appeal of defendants to the Supreme Court, the Court orders final judgment and the payment into Court of $455.88 by the garnishee out of funds in his hands.

A unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court, prepared by Chief Justice Judd, has been rendered in the case of Wong Chan vs. Ah Yong and Ah Wei, doing business under the name of "Ho Fong," and Yong Ahoi. It came up on appeal from the decree of Judge Cooper, declaring a trust and ordering an assignment of a lease by defendants to plaintiffs. The Court affirms the decree of Judge Cooper, on the following principles:

"The plaintiff deposited a sum of money with Y. A. and A. W. as advance rent on a lease which they agreed to obtain for him. The lease was obtained but was made to A. W. and A. H. as partners:

"Held, that the decree declaring A. W. and A. H. to be trustees for plaintiff of the lease, and ordering them to assign the same to plaintiff, should be affirmed. If A. H. was ignorant of the fraud he is bound by the fraud of his partner A. W., the transaction being a contract relating to the copartnership.

"Y. A. was employed by A. H. as an agent to procure the lease. He deceived plaintiff in taking the lease to A. W. and A. H.

"Held, that A. H. having put confidence in Y. A., should be the loser rather than the plaintiff."

J. A. Magoon for plaintiff; W. R. Castle for defendants.

Judge Cooper has granted the petition of Rev. D. Kapali to be appointed administrator of the estate of his deceased wife, which is valued at $2400. The bond is placed at $200. The heirs are the husband and the paternal uncle of the deceased, Ka-hoobulu.

G. W. R. King was adjudged bankrupt yesterday.

Hawaiian Lodge, F. & A. M., has entered suit, returnable at the February term of the Circuit Court, against F. H. Redward for the sum of $1623.12 claimed in terms of defendant's contract on the Masonic Temple. Defendant was to be paid $7234 for carpenter work, wrought and cast iron work and plastering on the building; but if he failed to prosecute his work the building committee of the Lodge could take it up and complete it, and if the expense of their doing so should exceed the unpaid balance, the defendant should pay the difference to the plaintiff.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

Assault and Assault—After Chinese Vagrants.

In the District Court this forenoon three cases of drunkenness were quickly disposed of with the usual fines of $2 each. One forfeited his bail of $5.

Kalekalea and Ah Mau were tried and found guilty of affray and fined $3 each. The affray occurred on the corner of Smith and Pauahi streets yesterday evening.

A plea of guilty was entered by G. V. Anderson for assault and battery on Chas. Sass on Jan. 17. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $5.

Two Mongols pleaded guilty to playing dominoes yesterday for money, and a nominal fine of $7 each was imposed.

Nine Chinese were on trial at noon when the Court adjourned, for vagrancy, in not having any visible means of support within the past three months. Detectives Larsen, Kauhaue and Puni gave evidence to the effect that they have had their eagle eyes on the Celestials for some time past, and have never seen them do ought else but gamble and play che fa. They formerly acted as informers.

Horse Killed.

A train on which were Deputy Marshal Brown, Captain Parker and Hong Sam went down to Ewa yesterday evening in response to a telephone message that someone had been shot at that place. On the way a horse was seen grazing on the track. The whistle of the engine was blown, but, before the animal could get out of the way, the cow-catcher caught him and threw him several yards away. The engine was halted and the horse being examined was found to be seriously injured. Deputy Marshal Brown shot him.

A Farewell Concert.

The public will have the last opportunity of hearing the talented Misses Albu at a farewell concert in the Opera House on Saturday week, January 27th. This special musical evening will be given as a complimentary benefit of Miss Rose Albu, on which occasion a program of choice selections, including the great miserere duet from the Opera of Trovatore will be given by the gifted vocalists, Misses Julie and Rose Albu.

"I know an old soldier who had chronic diarrhoea of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Edward Shunpink, a prominent druggist of Minneapolis, Minn. "I have sold the remedy in this city for over seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine now on the market for bowel complaints." 25 and 50 cent bottles of this remedy for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

"Is Cashley very extravagant in his habits?"

SHOW OF GRATEFUL HEARTS.

Chinese Christians Entertain Mrs. Gowen in Fine Style.

A most unique entertainment was given last evening in the St. Andrew's Sunday school room in the shape of a reception tendered to Mrs. E. H. Gowen by the Chinese Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral. Mr. Gowen, who started this congregation, is greatly beloved by the members, and they took this opportunity of honoring his wife who is at present on a visit to the Sisters of St. Andrew's Priory. The interior of the schoolroom had a fine appearance with its decorations of large and small flags and Chinese lanterns. A transparency with the word "Welcome" had a very prominent position at the upper end of the room.

Shortly after half-past seven o'clock Mrs. Gowen entered the schoolroom escorted by a committee of Chinese. She was introduced to those present by the Bishop of Honolulu in brief remarks. Mr. Chang Chow then called upon the Misses B. Cook and E. Mossman to play a piano duet, which they did very acceptably. A hymn was next sung in Chinese, after which two little boys, Ah Fet and Ah Ya, gave a recitation, "Welcome to Mrs. Gowen." They were loudly applauded.

Mr. Ah Hung, in a short address, said they were glad to meet Mrs. Gowen, and hoped she would convey their warm aloha to Mr. Gowen. Twenty pupils of St. Andrew's Priory then nicely sang "The Wood Thrush." A violoncello and piano duet by Mr. Wray Taylor and Rev. V. H. Kitcat was encored and another number given. After a hymn in Chinese the Rev. Yee Bew spoke of Mr. Gowen's great success among the Chinese in Honolulu. They were pleased to greet his wife this evening.

After a carol, "Nowell," sang by the pupils of St. Andrew's Priory, Mr. Chang Chow presented Mrs. Gowen with a very handsome Chinese table cloth, and a little tot handed her a bouquet. Then followed delicious ice cream and cake. Among those present were the Bishop of Honolulu and Mrs. Willis, Rev. V. H. Kitcat, Mrs. Flewelling of Vancouver, who came with Mrs. Gowen, and the Sisters and teachers of St. Andrew's Priory. The schoolroom was filled with the members of the Chinese congregation. The reception was a decided success and a credit to those who got it up.
